

January 13, 2012

Retirement of Chief Electoral Officer – Announcement

---

The following announcement was made today by David Darrow, the Deputy Minister to the Premier of Nova Scotia:

I would like to announce the upcoming retirement of Christine McCulloch, Q.C., Chief Electoral Officer for the Province of Nova Scotia.

Ms. McCulloch has provided 28 years of dedicated public service in various roles supporting the Province of Nova Scotia. She was a Senior Solicitor and Director, Legal Services, Department of Justice for many years and, most recently, she took on the critical role of Chief Electoral Officer.

Recruitment of a new Chief Electoral Officer will begin shortly and Ms. McCulloch has agreed to continue in her position until a replacement is found.

Please join me in thanking Christine for her significant contributions and in wishing her all the best in her upcoming retirement.

David Darrow
Clerk/Secretary to Executive Council
Deputy Minister to the Premier