Message from the Chief Electoral Officer

Dorothy Rice
Chief Electoral Officer

I AM PLEASED to issue the first of three reports related to the 42nd provincial general election (PGE). Writs of election were issued on October 27, 2024, for an election date of November 26, 2024. When the election was called, the team at Elections Nova Scotia (ENS) had been preparing for a PGE delivery that was based on our theme ‘elections that work for you.’

The election was delivered to voters by offering voting for more than 200 hours over 24 days during the writ period. The e-Ballot system was used across the province for the first time, and voter feedback was positive. Several outreach initiatives were deployed with success to underserved voters with the support of our IDEAs (Inclusive, Diversity, Equity and Accessibility) committee.

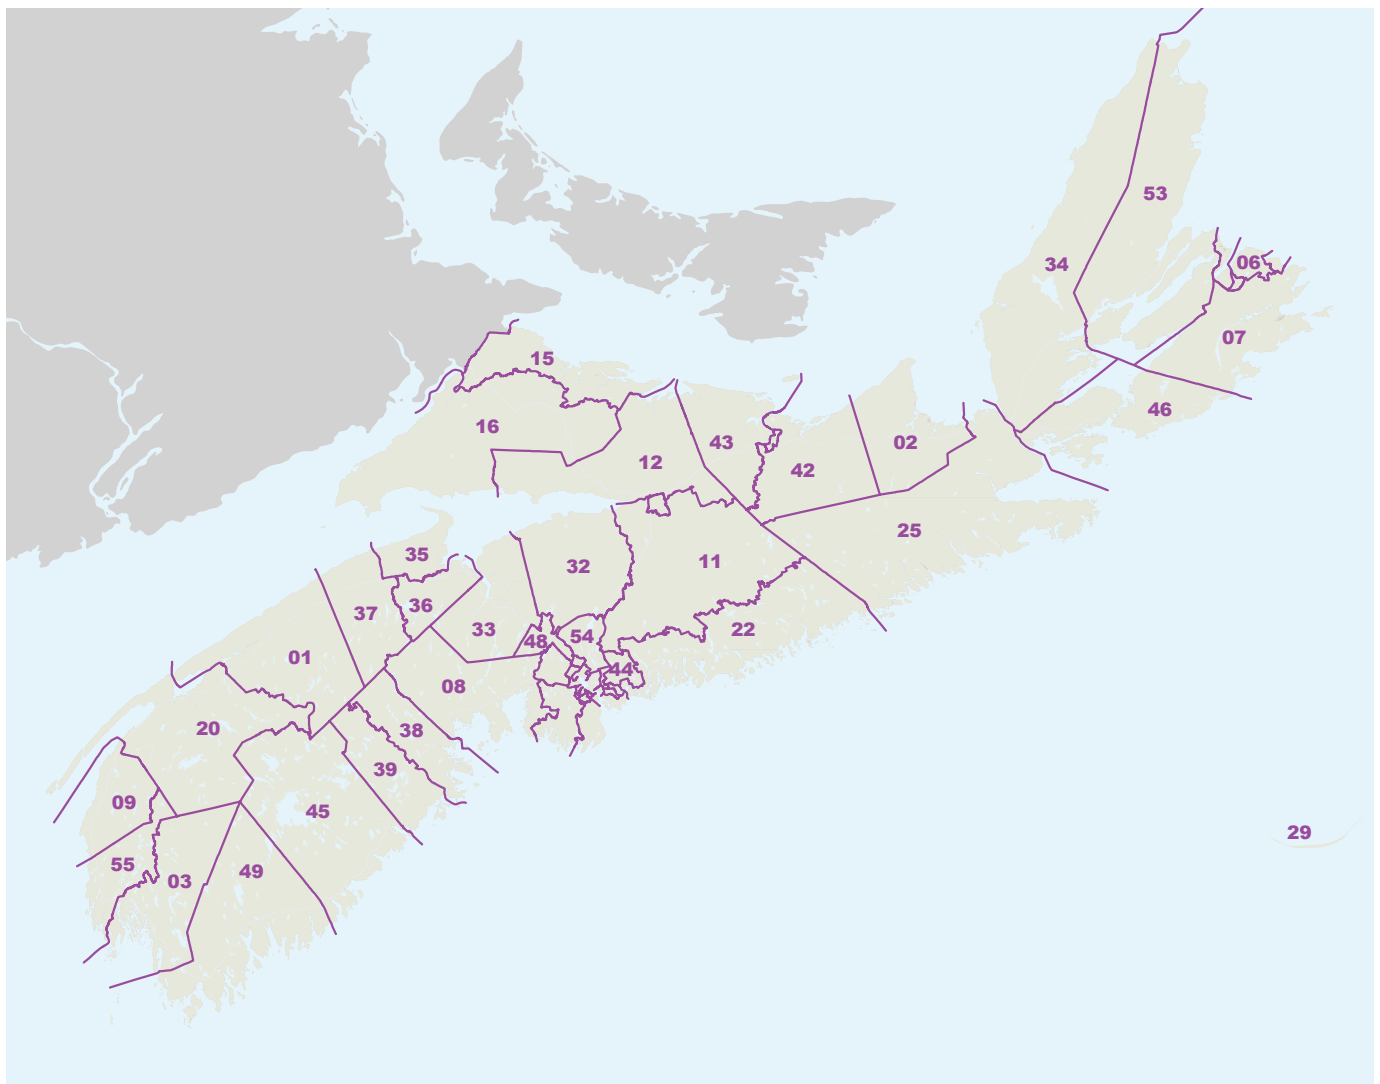

The organization faced major challenges that were effectively mitigated, including a postal strike that took place during the election. This prevented us from mailing Voter Information Cards (VICs), and an extensive advertising campaign was launched to inform electors of essential information regarding voting opportunities.

Through post-election analysis, including consultations with stakeholders, ENS is undergoing a thorough review of the delivery of the election including possible process improvements and legislative change recommendations. More details on these will be included in Volume II, to be issued in the coming months.

ENS is committed to working with legislators, registered political parties, and other key stakeholders to continue to protect the integrity of the democratic system that will serve Nova Scotians for all future elections.

Section 1

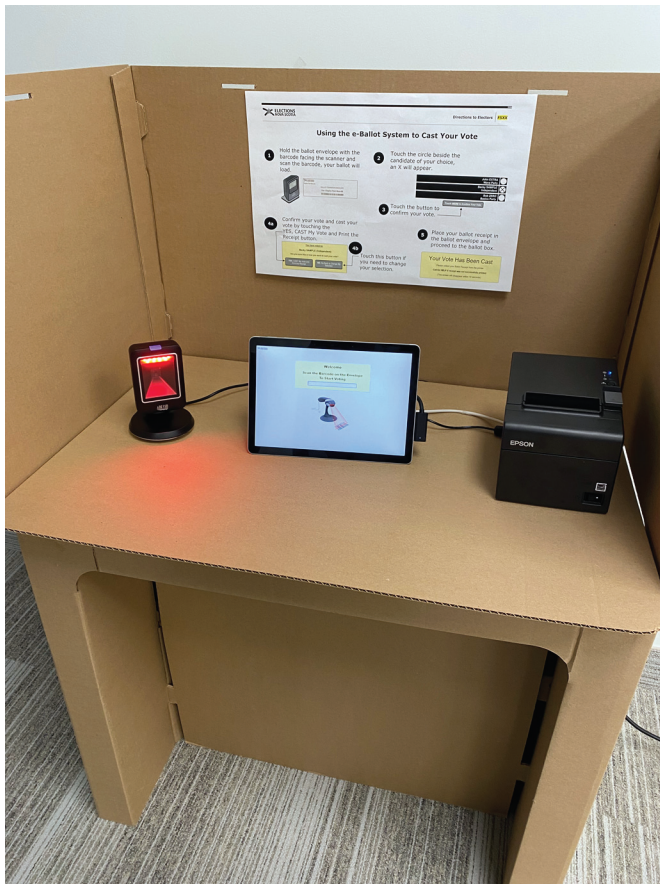

Nova Scotia's 42nd Provincial General Election Comparative Statistics and Trends

1 | Introduction

1.1 Election Innovations

ENS is continually working to improve the electoral process in Nova Scotia. Election innovations make voting more accessible and user friendly. Innovations also improve processes within electoral operations and the electoral finance regime. Several election innovations were implemented in the 42nd PGE.

An e-Ballot voting kiosk.

The 42nd PGE was the first PGE to use ENS's new e-Ballot system for early voting after the close of candidate nominations. The Preston by-election in 2023 was the first use of e-Ballot for in-person voting in Canada. The e-Ballot system allows voters to select the candidate of their choice on a secure tablet in person at an early voting location. During the PGE, e-Ballot was only used for early voting after the close of candidate nominations and prior to election day. Early voting before the close of candidate nominations was done using write-in ballots and traditional paper ballots were used for election day voting.

E-Ballot is not internet voting. Both are electronic forms of voting, but e-Ballot takes place in person at a voting location on a secure tablet while internet voting facilitates remote voting using the voter's own device. Internet voting was not used in the 42nd PGE. The e-Ballot system facilitated the efficient and secure counting and release of early voting results.

ENS implemented an election communications innovation for the 42nd PGE by mailing an election awareness postcard to all Nova Scotian households during the first week of the election period. The purpose of the awareness postcard was to help voters understand their voting options and encourage them to make a plan to cast their ballot. These cards were prepared before the writs of election were issued and were mailed quickly when the election was called. Due to the production timeline, the date for election day was not included on the postcard. These awareness postcards were not intended to replace the personalized Voter Information Cards (VIC) for registered voters.

With the postal strike looming, the distribution of VICs was not possible, due to the time it takes for voting locations to be secured after the writ is issued. Instead, ENS implemented a bilingual multi-media marketing campaign to help inform voters of voting options. The theme for this innovative campaign was 'No VIC, No Problem.'

Elections that work for you

A provincial general election is underway in Nova Scotia. If you are 18 years or older, a Canadian citizen, and have lived in the province for at least 6 months, you can vote.

Know Your Voting Options

- Vote early, vote anywhere! Cast your ballot before election day at whichever voting location is convenient for you Monday – Saturday from 9 am – 6 pm.
- Vote remotely at home or by mail using a write-in ballot.
- Vote on election day in person at your assigned voting location or returning office.
- Traditional paper ballots will be used for election day voting.

What's New?

- The new e-Ballot System will be used for in-person early voting after the close of candidate nominations.
- Select the candidate of your choice on a secure tablet.
- The e-Ballot System will print a paper copy of your vote for you to place in the ballot box, and to be used if there is a recount.

Be Ready

- Make sure you are on the voters list.
- Watch for your Voter Information Card (VIC) in the mail.
- Bring your VIC and ID to vote if you have it, but it is not necessary.

An election awareness postcard was mailed to all households in Nova Scotia during the first week of the 42nd PGE.

No Voter Information Card? No problem.

This election, all you need is your vote. No Voter Information Cards will be distributed to Nova Scotians this year.

Pas de carte d'information de l'électeur? Pas de problème.

A bilingual 'No VIC, No Problem' multi-media campaign was implemented across the province to inform voters about their voting options.

Four Outreach Liaison Officers were hired for the 42nd PGE to implement IDEAs initiatives and better support underserved voting communities. These included improved efforts to recruit diverse election workers, an IDEAs email to provide direct communications, and a feedback survey to gain insight into the diverse needs of underserved voters.

ENS also worked with our IDEAs partners to provide three supportive voting locations for the first time in the 42nd PGE. These supportive voting locations, staffed by the Outreach Liaison Officers, offered better access for underserved voters. The supportive voting locations were hosted by the North Grove and Inclusion Nova Scotia, the Mi'kmaw Native Friendship Centre, and the Canadian National Institute for the Blind (CNIB).

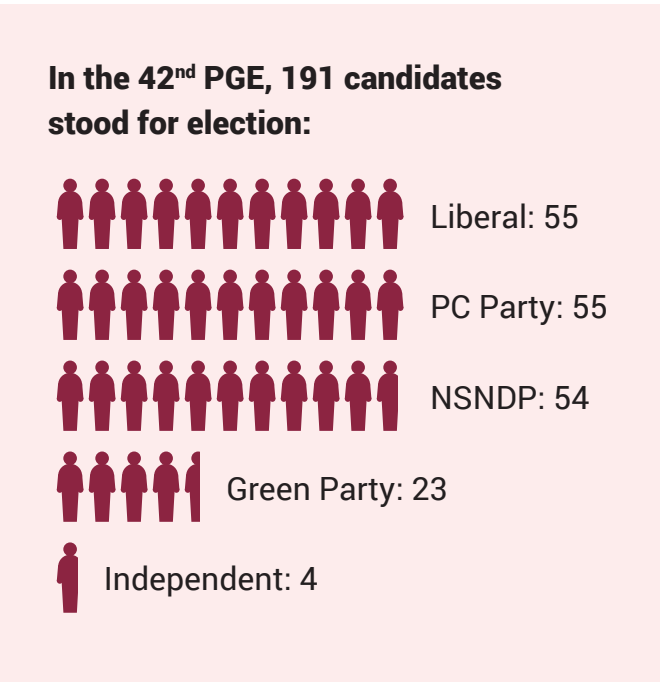

The Outreach Liaison Officers staffed supportive voting locations for underserved voting communities.

1.2 Summary of Results

On October 27, 2024, at the request of Premier Tim Houston, the Lieutenant Governor, the Honourable Arthur J. LeBlanc, ONS, KC, dissolved the Legislative Assembly. An Order in Council directed the Chief Electoral Officer (CEO), Dorothy Rice, to issue the writs of election to all 55 electoral districts. The date for the 42nd PGE was Tuesday, November 26, 2024.

The 42nd PGE was the second with the 55 electoral districts recommended by the 2019 Electoral Boundaries Commission.

All polls but one closed at 8 PM on election night. One poll in electoral district 21 Eastern Shore, opened one hour late on election day and a decision was made to extend voting hours until 9 PM at that voting location. ENS held the release of election results until the final poll closed. Election results were available publicly on the ENS website at approximately 9 PM. Due to the prompt reporting of e-Ballot votes, media outlets were able to declare the results quickly after 9 PM. The final hand counting of ballots was completed at approximately midnight, except for the out-of-district write-in ballots that was suspended and completed the following day.

The return of the writs of election confirmed the following numbers, which indicate the total party endorsed and independent candidates that were elected to the House of Assembly:

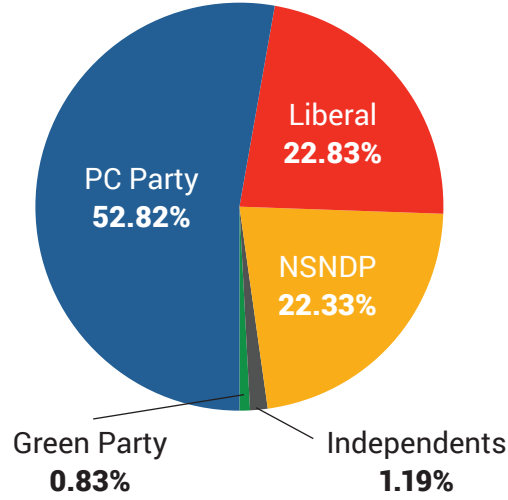

PC Party	43
Liberal	2
NSNDP	9
Independent	1

The PC Party received 187,045 votes of the valid votes cast, while the Liberals received 80,849, the NSNDP 79,068, the Green Party 2,940, and Independents 4,220.

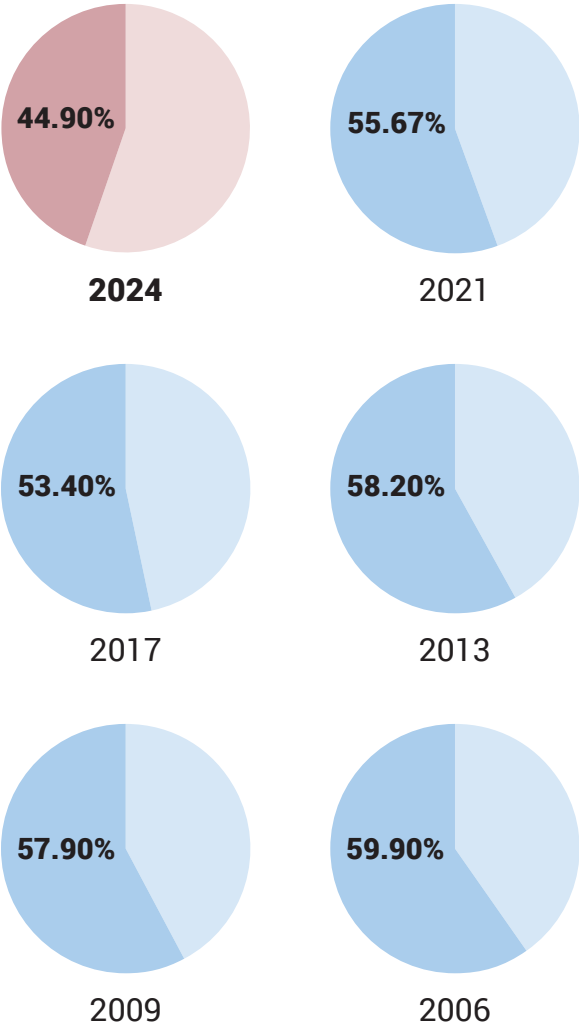

Chief Electoral Officer, Dorothy Rice, signed 55 writs of election.

Percentage of valid votes received in the 42nd PGE:

At the close of polls on election day, there were 793,913 electors registered to vote. In total, 356,371 (44.90%) of all registered electors voted.

Percentage of registered electors who voted (2006–2024):

A total of 2,007 polling stations were available in 817 different voting locations across the province:

- 37 Were used for advance voting.
- 22 Were used for community polls.
- 1,743 Serviced election day voters.
- 57 Mobile polls served voters who lived in residential centres.

More than 6,000 election workers were appointed to deliver the 42nd PGE.

Elections that work for you

Debbie Kavanaugh, Reservist with the Cadet Instructors Cadre of the Canadian Armed Forces and Returning Officer for Cole Harbour-Dartmouth.

DEBBIE KAVANAUGH IS a Reservist with the Cadet Instructors Cadre of the Canadian Armed Forces as well as the Returning Officer for Electoral District 14 Cole Harbour-Dartmouth. As a Returning Officer, Debbie is responsible for administering the electoral process in her district. Cadet Instructors Cadre officers are responsible for the safety, supervision, administration, and training of cadets, youth aged 12–18.

Debbie also holds the position of Municipal Elections Officer for the Provincial Department of Municipal Affairs and Housing where she supports Municipalities with the delivery of their elections. Her commitment to promoting electoral democracy in Nova Scotia and her military service shows Debbie truly embodies ENS's values of accountability, collaboration, inclusivity, integrity, transparency and innovation.

Given the timing of the 42nd PGE, ENS decided to close voting locations until 1 PM on Remembrance Day to recognize the important contributions of members of the armed services and veterans in service to our country. This gave Returning Officers, like Debbie, election workers, voters and their families an opportunity to attend Remembrance Day services.

5 | Register of Electors

Since the adoption of a Register of Electors in 2003, ENS has worked to increase voter registration and enhance the reliability of the voter information. Since then, ENS has maintained the Register of Electors through data received from several sources including the Registry of Motor Vehicles, Vital Statistics, the Nova Scotia Civic Address File, Elections Canada, municipal elections and field work done by ROs and ENS staff. Through digital and manual matching operations ENS strives to update voter information to the extent possible depending on the accuracy and compatibility of the source of information. Agreements with each data provider continue to be modified to meet the changing needs of voters, including recommendations provided by the IDEAs committee.

5.1 Lists of Electors through the Election Period

Revisions and additions to the list of electors starts almost immediately, usually through targeted enumeration and direct contact through the returning office.

Did you know?

At the start of the election 785,397 registered voters were on the Provincial List of Electors.

A Preliminary List of Electors was generated for each electoral district by the end of Day 21, November 5th. The day after the close of nominations, each nominated candidate and registered political party was offered a copy of the list of electors.

Revision continued through the election at the returning offices, early voting opportunities and election day polls. The Final List of Electors was generated in February 2025 and included all updates of voters that were added or revised on election day.

Did you know?

For the 42nd PGE, there was a net of 8,516 voters added to the initial provincial list as opposed to 12,396 added in 2021.

It details some of the types of revisions including changes to the voter's name and date of birth, their residential civic address due to a move into the electoral district or a move to a new residence within their district, updates to their mailing address, and voters removed from the list due to death, voters who have moved, or voters who were previously on the Register who re-registered.

* The number of revised voters indicates the number of voters that had one or more types of revision on their information.

 The number of new voters that were added to the List of Electors throughout the election period. In addition, these voters may also have been revised and included in the number per type of revision.

5.3 Population Coverage by Age

Table 9 details the distribution of the registered voters by age group and the percentage on the Register of Electors.

Did you know?

During the 42nd PGE, the Register of Electors included 96.09% of the estimated population of Nova Scotians who are eighteen years of age or older.

The Statistics Canada population estimate is based on July 2021 census data. Register coverage is defined as the percentage of eligible voters on the Register of Electors in November 2024 using the July 2021 population estimate.

The Statistics Canada population estimate includes ineligible voters, that is, non-citizens, and voters who have not lived in the province for the six months prior to the date the writs of election were issued. The Register of Electors will include a small number of duplicate records where two versions of the information are captured for a voter. For example, a voter may be duplicated if there is a difference in the names entered on a Nova Scotia driver's license and in filing taxes where the voter is added to the Elections Canada list of electors that has not been identified by ENS's register software. The Register will include people who have moved out of province or have died and not yet been identified to be removed from the list.

6.4 Voting Opportunities by Day

Voters in Nova Scotia could vote early at any returning office, advance, or community poll offered in the province from Day 27 to Day 3 of the election calendar (October 30, 2024 – November 23, 2024). Other early voting opportunities included write-in ballot, and write-in ballot home visit teams. Community polls were open for a full two-week period from Day 17 – Day 3 of the election calendar (November 9 – November 23, 2024). Advance polls were offered for a full week (November 16 – November 23, 2024).

Did you know?

In the 42nd PGE there were 23 days of early voting available and 24 days of voting in total.

Table 15 illustrates the voting opportunities available during each day of the election calendar and compares the offerings from 2021 with those available in 2024.

6.5 Access to the Polls

Ensuring eligible voters have reasonable access to voting, availability of voting locations while managing costs are major factors in determining locations for early voting opportunities and election day voting locations. To increase access, voters in Nova Scotia can vote at any voting location in the province during the early voting period until the Saturday before election day. Vote anywhere was introduced in the 40th PGE in 2017 and was offered again in 2021 and 2024. On election day, voters may vote at their assigned voting location or at the returning office in their home electoral district.

Elections that work for you

◀ Voting Remotely by Write-in Ballot

This election worked for Jeff Heckbert and Stuart Hisler. They worked with the ENS Write-in Ballot Coordinator to facilitate their vote by write-in ballot while traveling through Italy.

▼ Voting at Home with the Write-in Ballot Home Visit Team

This election worked for Eugene and Ruby Blois. As dedicated long-time voters they were pleased that they could vote in the comfort of their own home with the support of a home visit team using a write-in ballot.

▲ Early Voting By e-Ballot

This election worked for Gordon and Dianne Sturdy. They opted to vote early at the returning office in their electoral district. They used the new e-Ballot system and thought it was a fun way to cast their ballots fast and efficiently.

7 | Voting Participation

For the 42nd PGE, Nova Scotians had a variety of early voting opportunities. Early voting opportunities included voting at a returning office, voting at a community or advance poll, voting by mail using a write-in ballot, or having a home visit. Election day voting opportunities included voting at a voter's assigned voting location, voting at the returning office in a voter's home electoral district, or voting using a write-in ballot facilitated by a write-in ballot team or by a voter's agent.

7.1 Historical Voter Turnout

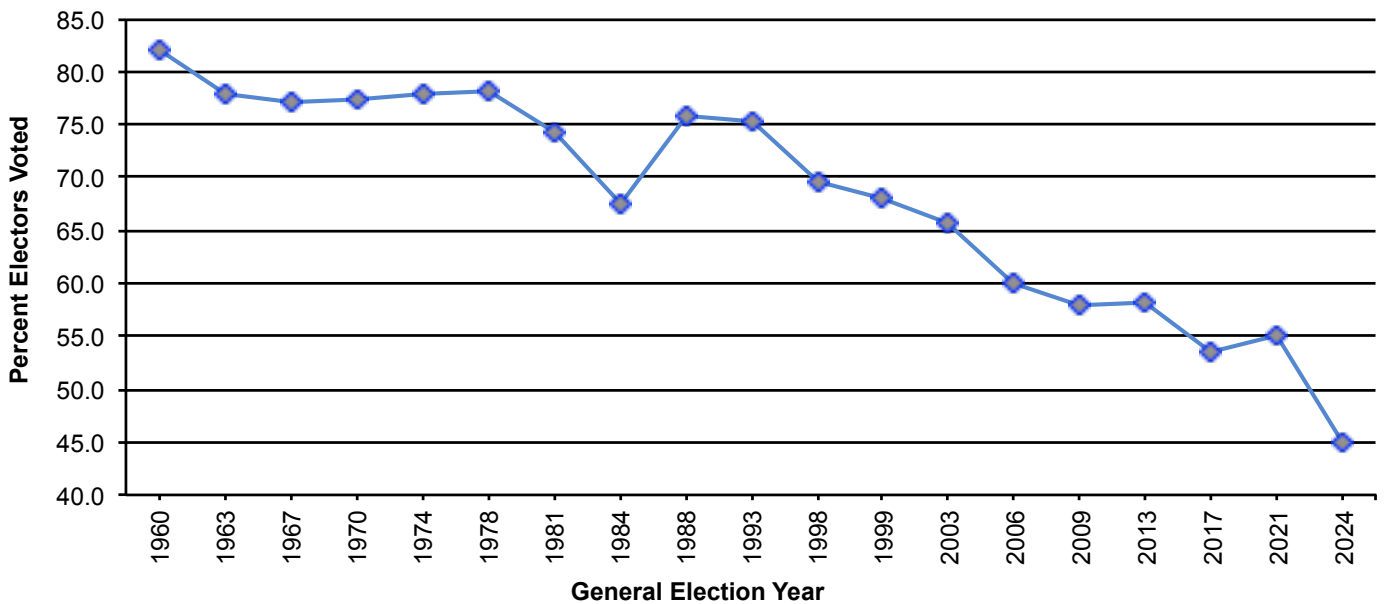

Increased early voting opportunities in recent decades have added convenience for voters but has not resulted in higher percentages of voter turnout. Historically, voter turnout in Nova Scotia has been on a downward trend since the 1960s, with a brief increase in the late 80's and early 90's. As an election administrator, voter turnout is something ENS follows closely, focusing on ensuring that every eligible elector has the information they need to understand their voting options and barrier free access to exercising their right to vote. ENS has not conducted any surveys to attain data on why voters chose not to vote. Declining voter turnout has been a trend in many Canadian jurisdictions. For example, similar voter turnout levels were reported in Ontario in 2022 and 2025.

Did you know?

Voter turnout during the 41st PGE in 2021 was roughly 55%, which was just slightly higher than turnout during the 40th PGE in 2017, 53%. The 42nd PGE showed even further decline in voter turnout with only 44.9%.

Figure 4 provides a historical overview of voter turnout in Nova Scotia since 1960.

7.2 Distribution of Voters by Age Group

It is important to consider age demographics and turnout, because it helps identify where increased engagement or procedural changes may be required.

Did you know?

During the past three elections (2017, 2021, and 2024) the lowest turnout by age continues to be with the 18 to 24-year-olds.

In 2017 and 2021 the highest turnout by age was the 55 to 64-years-olds with the 65 to 74-years-olds close behind. In 2024, this flipped with the 65 to 74-years-olds as the highest and the 55 to 64-year-olds dropping slightly to the second highest.

7.5 Out of District Participation

During the 42nd PGE, voters were given the opportunity to cast their ballot for the candidates in their local electoral district at any voting location in the province during the early voting period up to Saturday, November 23. Out of district votes were also cast via write-in ballot. In total 29,677 votes or 16.9% of voters, voted outside their home electoral district throughout Nova Scotia.

Did you know?

Clayton Park West had the highest number of out-of-district votes: 2,531 or 50.8%. This district also had the highest out-of-district votes in 2021.

Table 21 provides the number of voters who voted during early voting and by write-in ballot by electoral district and illustrates the number of votes who voted out-of-district as well as the percentage of out-of-district voters.

7.6 Hospital and Residential Centre Write-in Ballot Polls

For efficiency, ENS has reduced the number of mobile polls across the province, while maintaining service levels to voters residing in hospital and residential care centres.

For the 42nd PGE, nursing homes and residential centres with fewer than 40 voters were served by the write-in ballot teams. There were roughly 60 nursing homes served in this manner. Additionally, there was a total of 57 mobile polls held which served 61 nursing homes, 20 seniors' residences and three options centres.

Table 23 provides an overview of the write-in ballot polls conducted at hospitals across the province, including the number of in-district and out-of-district voters.

8 | Judicial Recounts

The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia granted recounts of all ballots cast in two electoral districts for the 42nd PGE. This was the first time that a recount was held that included the count of e-Ballots. Since the e-Ballot receipts had not been opened and hand counted before the recount, the recount process was updated to reflect this change. The results of the hand-count verified the integrity of the e-Ballot system that demonstrated ENS's confidence in this new technology.

The deadline to apply for a judicial recount for the provincial general election was Monday, December 2, 2024.
