

The write-in ballot is designed to ensure the secrecy of your vote. As an additional measure to safeguard privacy, all the ballot envelopes are mixed before being opened and counted.

Step 1.

Print the name of the candidate for whom you are voting in the box at the top of the ballot. If the candidate is running for a party you may also place an "X" in the circle of the candidate's party.

If you know the name of your candidate, write it in the space provided. If the candidate is running for a party, you may also make a mark for the candidate's party.

Atlantica Party

Green

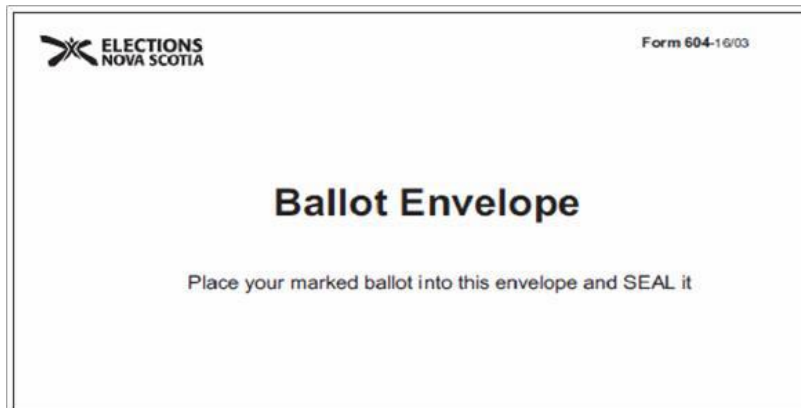

Liberal

NDP

Progressive Conservative

Step 2.

Place your marked ballot into the ballot envelope and seal it.
