

Make a Difference in Your Community!

At Elections Nova Scotia, our vision is to excel in the delivery of fair and inclusive elections. We encourage individuals from underserved communities to apply for election worker positions. We are committed to creating an inclusive environment where everyone can thrive.

Elections Nova Scotia is seeking passionate individuals to join us as election workers across all 55 electoral districts in the province. There are a variety of positions ranging from temporary full-time roles to one day election workers. No formal education is required, just a commitment to fairness and inclusivity in our democratic process.
