Halifax, Monday, May 25, 2009

- Elections Nova Scotia has mailed more than 700,000 personalized voter information cards to electors who are on the lists of electors.
- Electors who do not receive their voter information card by Wednesday, May 27, 2009, or who receive a card with incorrect information, should contact their local Elections Nova Scotia returning office no later than 8:00 pm on Wednesday, June 3, 2009 or call 1-800-565-1504 anytime from 8:00 am to 9:00 pm (9:00 am to 5 pm on Sunday).
- Electors who receive a card for a deceased person or someone unknown at that address should also contact their local Elections Nova Scotia returning office.

"The Voter Information Card tells you where to vote and when," said Chief Electoral Officer Christine McCulloch. "Take it with you to the poll. It can speed the process."
